yesterday afternoon was practically unanimous, only the objection of F. M. Hatch, presented by S. M. Ballou, being recorded directly against the protest, with a tentative objection by Mr. Ballou.

The Bar Association also took the same course of objection with the Mitchell amendment which provides that judges on the Supreme Bench shall be citizens either of the Territory of Hawaii or of some state or territory of the United States, instead of the eligibility being confined, under the Organic Act, to citizenship in the Islands. The Organic Act provides that appointees to the bench shall be citizens only of the Territory of Hawaii.

The first protest will be made by the Bar Association only. That against the amendment on appointments to the bench will be made by commercial bodies of the Territory, the Bar Association taking the initiative. The Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' Association, Builders and Traders' Association, will be included as the signers of the second protest.

President W. O. Smith, Judge Hartwell and W. A. Kinney of the Bar Association were appointed a committee to draw up the protests.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

The meeting was convened at 4 o'clock and was attended by W. O. Smith, president; A. F. Judd, secretary pro tem; Judge Hartwell, W. A. Kinney, A. G. M. Robertson, J. A. Magoon, S. M. Ballou, L. A. Thurston, W. R. Castle, A. W. Carter, C. S. Dole, A. Lewis, Jr., W. L. Stanley, E. P. Dole, A. A. Wilder, L. J. Warren, C. F. Clemons, Mr. Derby.

W. O. Smith, as presiding officer, referred to the bills presented to Congress by Senator Mitchell on judiciary matters and other affairs of the Territory, which appeared yesterday in the Washington correspondence of the Advertiser.

L. A. Thurston said he was opposed to the proposition of allowing appeals from the local Supreme Court to the Supreme Court of the United States, and he moved that it be the sense of the Bar Association that the amendment proposed is not an amendment to the Organic Act which is approved by the Bar Association. He said one of the principal objections to it was the time and expense involved, as it would amount practically to a denial of justice especially to a poor man. He referred to appeals taken from Hawaii to the Circuit Court of Appeals at San Francisco which had been most expensive to persons involved, and the expense would be still greater in connection with appeals to the Supreme Court of the United States. Justice, under these circumstances, would be a luxury. The regular calendar of the United States Supreme Court was now two years behind and was rapidly becoming congested. Attorneys must go from here to Washington, and their time, expenses and fees must be paid. At present Hawaii is in the same position as the forty odd sovereign states and the territory can now obtain as good an administration of justice as in the past.

A. W. Carter seconded the motion.

SHOULD HAVE HOME RULE.

W. A. Kinney said that to adjust our own personal affairs we had to go 5,000 miles beyond the seas. These affairs no more concerned Senator Mitchell's constituents than the affairs of Oregon interested Hawaii. In our judiciary the territory was given self-government, a valuable boon to every one here, and he was of the opinion it would be suicidal for the Bar Association to throw away this great privilege, for otherwise Hawaii would be in the position of washing its dirty linen in Washington.

Judge Hartwell said it would be a great mistake if the Bar Association did not take up this matter and protest against the amendments. He did not know why Senator Mitchell proposed the amendment and he did not know who, in Hawaii, could have suggested it. The amendment did not include criminal matters.

"Then," said the Judge, "if life and liberty are safe with our own Supreme Court to pass upon, I do not see why property is not equally protected here."

S. M. Ballou said he spoke for F. M. Hatch, who was opposed to the Bar Association making a protest against the amendment. Mr. Ballou, for himself, said he was somewhat of the fence. Mr. Hatch was of the opinion that the filing of briefs at Washington, was sufficient to carry a case to the end without personal supervision, and this naturally would save expense.

Several members challenged this statement and Mr. Ballou was asked whether he would care to have a case in which he was personally interested, take care of itself on a brief. A. S. Lewis, Jr., Judge Stanley, W. R. Castle, E. P. Dole, A. G. M. Robertson, and others strongly favored the protest, and the Bar Association went on record to this extent.

Judge Hartwell presented an objection to the Mitchell amendment relative to the appointments of judges to the Supreme Court from states and territories other than Hawaii. After some discussion it was deemed wise to enlist the co-operation of the mercantile bodies of the territory in this matter, as affecting them, as much as it did the Bar Association personnel, and a motion to this effect prevailed.

The committee will report at a meeting to be held at 4 p. m. next Wednesday.

A daughter was born early this morning to the wife of W. W. Boyd, an engineer in the Fire Department.

THE SONOMA PASSES THROUGH

The Oceanic steamship Sonoma arrived about noon yesterday from San Francisco, and departed last night for the Colonies at 11:30 o'clock. She brought a number of passengers for Honolulu and had a fair through list. Among those departing was Prof. Brigham, who goes to the Colonies on an official errand on behalf of the Bishop Museum.

The vessel was greeted with a burst of music as it was docked at the Hackfeld wharf, the cadet band on the German training ship lying near by giving a complimentary concert to the incoming passengers. The liner left San Francisco a couple of hours late, at 4 p. m., and experienced rough weather the first three days.

Among the arrivals were Mrs. M. M. Scott and Miss Scott who have been visiting in San Francisco for about a year; Mrs. R. L. Halsey, wife of Rev. Mr. Halsey of the Immigrant Station; Mr. and Mrs. August Dreier, the former much improved in health.

Among the through passengers was Major Taylor, the crack colored bicycle rider, accompanied by his wife. The "Majah" goes to Australia to do track riding, in which he was quite successful there last year. He has been riding on eastern circuits in the States this summer and has maintained his record for speed.

A string of fast race horses was brought on the Sonoma for Honolulu by the owner, H. L. Scott. The racers, which are all trotters, arrived in good condition. The horses have been on the big circuits this year on the mainland, and are probably speedier than any in the islands. Bynor, a three-year old, has a record of 2:08 1/4 made on a Chicago track. The others are Hedder, 2:07 1/2, and Too Soon, 2:05 1/2. The string will be maintained at the race track all winter and may be taken to Australia about the middle of January.

Duncan McKay, a British subject, who was a stowaway on the Ventura which arrived from the Colonies on Tuesday, was put aboard the Sonoma last night and will be dropped off at Pago Pago where he boarded the Ventura. He went to Pago Pago from Paape in a trading schooner.

CHARLOTTE SAILS AMID CHEERS

Amid cheers, waving of handkerchiefs and dipping of flags from other vessels, the German Training bark Herzogin Sophie Charlotte sailed from Honolulu yesterday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock for Sydney. The departure of the popular vessel was the occasion of a great send-off by the German colony of Honolulu.

By 3 o'clock the sails on all the yards were loosened and allowed to hang in graceful, regular folds, ready to be shaken out when the channel was reached. The ship was put into a tidy condition, and her decks were thronged with visitors bidding the officers and cadets bon voyage. During this time the cadet band played on the main deck the national airs of Germany alternating with patriotic music of America. The Fearless took the tow hawser shortly before 4, and the visitors, including German Consul and Mrs. Isenberg, and leading members of the German colony went aboard the tug and waved the last farewells outside the channel. As the vessel moved swiftly out of the harbor flags were dipped and the compliment returned by the Charlotte. The staff on the Hackfeld building was ornamented by flags which were dipped and raised until the vessel had left the harbor. The rim of the cupola was lined with members and employees of the firm, and to these the cadets gave three cheers, cheering also for the people of Honolulu in general. The compliment was returned with a will by those on the building.

Honors to Paymaster.

VALLEJO, November 16.—On the trip up from Honolulu to Mare Island the Navy Yard distiller ship Iris brought the body of the late Paymaster Rhodes, U. S. N., who died at the United States Naval Hospital in Honolulu as the result of an operation for appendicitis.

Upon reaching the yard the body was taken to the hospital building, and there remained in state until yesterday afternoon when it was taken to the tug Unadilla, a company of marines and the Mare Island station band tic Polish family, on charge of pretending to have borne a son more than six years ago and presenting him as heir to a great estate, has been going on in Berlin for some time. Count Kwiecki has also been on trial as an accessory.

A COUNTSST ACQUITTED.

The Countess was arrested nearly a year ago. She was defended by very able lawyers and the trial has been drawing almost as much attention as did the Humbert trials in Paris.

Countess Kwiecki was born in 1846 and married the Count in 1864, bearing him three children, the last in 1879. Then the Count and Countess claimed that the latter gave birth to the son who has caused the present trouble. They said this son was born in 1867. The prosecution claimed that the lad was the son of a peasant woman and had this latter woman in court as a witness and a claimant for the child. There were some mysterious features surrounding the case. A recent dispatch stated that the Countess had been "cornered" by the judge. She was unable to give satisfactory explanations of many questions and some damaging facts were brought out, including that when the Countess came to Berlin to await her accouchement, she said she did so because she could get better medical attention here, but she did not call in a physician and employed a midwife. The Countess, it was also shown by the testimony, intended going abroad for the event and refrained from so doing only because of representations made to her that the collateral heirs of the estate would suspect her.

acting as escort. Aboard the tug brief military services, at which were present most of the officers and ladies of the yard, were held, Chaplain A. McAlister officiating. The Unadilla, with her colors at half mast, then steamed for San Francisco, where the remains were placed in a vault at the Presidio. They will be shipped later to Cleveland, Ohio, where interment will be made.

China Off Port.

A steamer, probably the China from the Orient, was sighted off port at 1:30 o'clock this morning.

MARINES MAY NOT COME HERE

There is a bare possibility that the Honolulu Naval Station will not have a marine guard after all.

Official news of a detachment of marines being ordered to the station for permanent duty has been received by the Admiral, and no orders have come to build quarters for it.

The recent news to the effect that most of the marine forces are required at Panama and on the Asiatic station seems to preclude any possibility of the guard coming here just now.

Cruiser Elba Departs.

The Italian cruiser Elba departed at 9:30 yesterday morning for Yokohama. As the vessel slid out into the harbor the band and guard were mustered on the after deck complimentary to Admiral Terry, and several martial selections were rendered. Captain Ricci expressed his thanks to the Admiral for the many courtesies extended himself and vessel while occupying the Naval Dock.

Hawaii's Lighthouses.

Captain Rodman yesterday received a letter from Captain C. T. Hutchins, U. S. N., naval secretary of the Lighthouse Board, stating that the Hawaiian Islands are not yet included as a lighthouse district under the Department of Commerce and Labor, and no appointment as Lighthouse Inspector would be made for the present.

Shipping Notes.

The Andrew Welch is scheduled to sail for San Francisco tomorrow forenoon. She will carry passengers.

Reinsurance on the French bark Paris, from Hamburg for this port, had advanced to twenty per cent on Nov. 14, when the vessel was out 185 days.

Captain Clark, the dock superintendent for the Oceanic Steamship Company, returned on the Sonoma from a vacation spent on the Coast. As the vessel neared the Hackfeld wharf, the Hawaiian stevedores, marshalled by Foreman Olepau, gave three ringing cheers and a tiger for the captain.

Among the beneficiaries of Federal witness fees the four deported contract laborers imported by Harashida, who was sent to jail for three months on their account. They received $200, which is better pay than they would have received in the same time if given leave to toil.
